

MISSION PORT OFFICER, PETERHEAD

Background

Are you confident, approachable and empathetic? Do you want a job where you make a difference every day? Can you listen as well as talk, be organised as well as flexible? If this is you then you should take the next step and apply to join the family of the Fishermen's Mission.

We are looking for a Port Officer to work in and around Peterhead. This job is about fishermen and their families. You need to be able to walk alongside people in the good times and the bad. They will need you to offer guidance and answers that will offer practical solutions and make a real difference. This is one of the most rewarding jobs you could ever hope to have.

The Fishermen's Mission is a Christian charity that has been around since 1881. We help active and retired fishermen and their families around the whole of the UK coastline. You could be part of our vital work. We're not caught up in qualifications or even work experience. We are looking for the right person. Someone who can plan out their own day, talk to someone without waiting for an introduction, listen carefully and respond with compassion. Sounds like you? Get in touch.

The Role

This is a part time post for which an equivalent of four day's work a week is expected. (32 hours) There is complete flexibility in relation to how the hours are constructed. It is expected that the Mission Port Officer will support in the delivery of the Fishermen's Mission's work in the area in a number of ways, including the following:

- An ability to respond quickly with pastoral, welfare, and practical support for fishermen and their families when accident strikes.
- A special emphasis on the welfare support of retired and active fishermen and their families, especially those in particular need – this is likely to include home and some hospital visiting.
- To participate in the development of good relationships with active fishermen in local harbours
- Spiritual support will include a willingness to work closely alongside local churches.
- Assisting with fundraising
- Associated administration as required to include Health and Safety

- Covering for the Mission Area Officer during times of absence
- To work at all times with compassion and empathy, within the Christian Ethos of the organisation.

The Fishermen's Mission is a Christian organisation. It is an occupational requirement that the person appointed to the post is a practicing Christian.

Appropriate expenses will be paid. An ability to drive and access to a car is essential. Car use is reimbursed at 45 pence per mile. A mobile phone will be provided. Training and support will be available. An PVG clearance is required. This is a uniformed post and it is expected that uniform will be worn in the course of Fishermen's Mission duties.

The Fishermen's Mission offers ongoing support and training and it is hoped that the successful candidate will enjoy being part of a growing and rapidly developing team.

You will be required to attend our Head Office in Whiteley, Hampshire, as part of your induction programme.

Terms and Conditions

Based: At the Fishermen's Mission, Peterhead but travel around the area will be required.

Formal position: Uniform wearing, salaried member of staff.

Hours: 32 hours per week

Annual Salary: £16,720.39 per p.a

Probationary period: 3 months.

Group personal pension plan: available on satisfactory completion of 3 months service.

Life Assurance: up to four times annual salary.

Critical Illness cover: paying 75% of salary if unable to work for longer than 6 months due to one of the covered conditions.

Holiday: 25 days annual leave plus public holidays, (pro rata is 27 days inclusive of public holidays).

Application Application forms are available on the Fishermen's Mission's website www.fishermensmission.org.uk/get-involved/vacancies or via Hanna Taylor at hannataylor@fishermensmission.org.uk

Appointment will be subject to receipt of satisfactory references and PVG Scheme membership.